

Baja Update
November 2007

- “Wow, these are great Shoeboxes!” That’s what Cornerstone’s own Baja Missionary Kevin Cross said when he inspected the 45 Christmas Shoe Boxes from Cornerstone.
- “Oh Happy Day!” That’s what Angela sang as she put her new “flannel Sheets” on her bed. Cornerstone will help her to stay warm on the 35 degree evenings.
- “Happy Feet” that’s what Eduardo said, as he now has 4 pair of shoes brought by Cornerstone. Sandals, tennis shoes, work boots and normal shoes.
- “Oh, Look, Rye Bread” That’s what Baja Missionary Gord said as he explored the fresh baked donated Sara Lee Bread. Turns out he is allergic to all bread except Rye, and God just happened to send Rye.
- La Paloma Children’s Home ran by Joanne Monsanto: Veronica, who is one of 7 orphaned siblings, found a Hello Kitty Back Pack to replace the back pack which had just broken...God had answered her prayer via Cornerstone. We also provided them with clothing, jackets, food, including fresh bread. Additional prayer requests are: For Candeleria, who had a heart condition which God healed, but she is unable to hear or speak and goes to a special school. The school only goes up to 6th grade and soon she won’t have a school to attend. She needs to learn sign language. Also prayer for 14year Janet. Janet is also an orphan and her only grandmother just died. Also Joanne is praying for a 5th wheel or trailer for a family to live in, who will be helping with the Children’s home.
- The 120 jackets were “warmly” received by the missionaries. Some will be distributed to the people of Baja.
- Renee and Juana now have gas money to pay for 4 more trips to the Fishing Village for Bible Study
- Octavio is a Mexican Pastor who plays the guitar very well, but had no Guitar. He has one now, delivered by Cornerstone.
- Melchor, the Mission Custodian, found a brand new watch for his family.
- Karen Wind found a potty chair (Alex is ready)
- Yolanda was happy to find a VCR

La Rafaela now has a ceiling light and Electrical plugs in her living room. She now has 4 chairs. Her Daughter Celestia raises her two sons And baby daughter herself, because her Husband abandoned them. Pray for this Family. We plan to return in January to Finish installing their electrical.

Thanks to all who gave in any way to the Baja Missionaries. Thanks to all, we delivered furniture, clothing, shoes, toys, household items, including warm blankets, guitars, food, Christmas presents, and many other things.
